1ST & 3RD WEDNESDAYS – 10 A.M. – NOON

2ND WEDNESDAYS – MYSTERY READERS – 10 A.M. – NOON

A FREE Program of the Morro Bay Library • 625 Harbor St.

July 5 The Curious Charms of Arthur Pepper by Phaedra Patrick	In this hauntingly beautiful story of love, loneliness and self-discovery, an enduring widower embarks on a life-changing adventure.
July 12 Faithful Place by Tana French	Nineteen-year old Frank Mackey leaves home. Twenty-two years later he is going home whether he likes it or not, as a detective in the Dublin Undercover squad.
July 19 Please Look After Mom by Kyung-Sook Shin	A suspenseful, haunting, achingly lovely novel about the hidden lives, wishes, struggles and dreams of those we think we know best.
August 2 The Red Garden by Alice Hoffman	The novel introduces us to the luminous and haunting world of Blackwell, Massachusetts, capturing the unexpected turns in its history and in our own lives.
August 9 Find Her by Lisa Gardner	Fiora Dane is a victim, a survivor and reckless.
August 16 The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn by Mark Twain	A classic story, filled with high adventure and unforgettable characters.
September 6 Americanah by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie	A powerful, yet tender story of race and identity.
September 13 The Murder of Roger Ackroyd by Agatha Christie	An early and particularly brilliant outing of Hercule Poirot, the author's most daring crime mystery.
September 20 Frog Music by Emma Donoghue	A long-forgotten, never-solved crime that captures the pulse of a boomtown like no other.
